

Says

Thinks

To stop the flood of population.

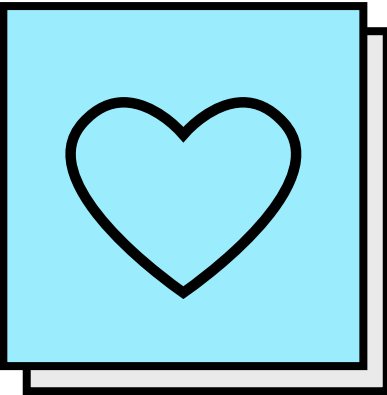

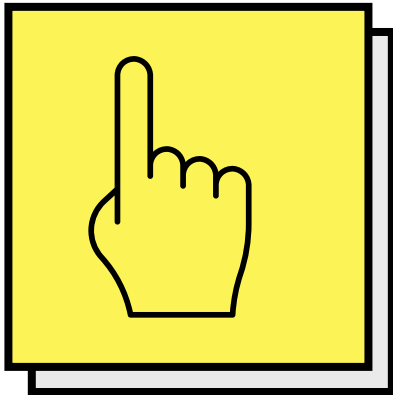

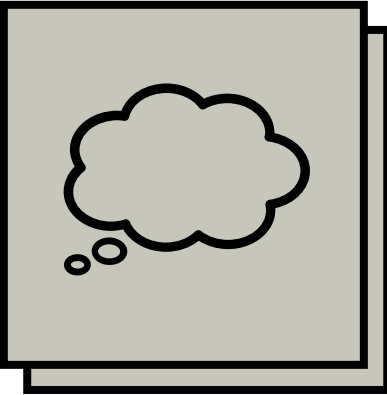

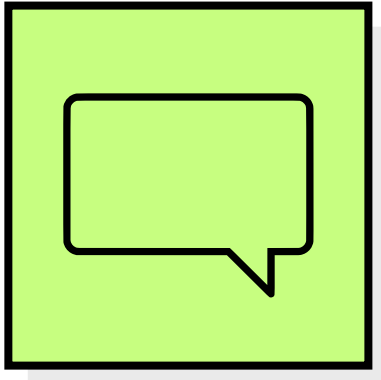

To use the available resources in a controlled and effective manner.

Increased human capital.

Higher economic growth.

Positive views of globalization are down.

More people = More potential inventors of new technology.

Estimate the basic needs for human.

Estimate the potential consumptions in various regions.

Lack of infrastructure leading to poor living.

More chances for the exploitation of natural resources.

Raise public awareness.

Unemployment / increased dependency

Does

Feels